Extend County Fair to Include Sunday

RODEO AND PAGEANT TO BE REPEATED

Managers Set Closing Date Ahead to Allow Workers in County to Attend

H. B. BAND TO PLAY

Expect Immense Crowd to Attend Contest Arranged For Charleston Dancers

DECISION to extend the fair to include Sunday, September 27, was made this morning at a meeting of directors of the Orange County Fair association. Under the original arrangement, it was intended to bring the big show to a close Saturday night.

The action of the directors was taken in response to a general demand for its continuation to include Sunday, an arrangement which would enable the greater portion of wage earners in nearby communities and outlying districts to visit the fair.

The program for Sunday, the closing day, will include a rodeo in the afternoon, to be followed by a horse show and the allegory pageant in the evening.

Beach Band to Play.

Listed as an added attraction on tonight's program is the appearance of the famous Huntington Beach Municipal band, an organization composed entirely of professional musicians. Following an outdoor concert in front of the main gate, the band will give a two-hour concert in the main feature tent. The program will range from grand opera selections to the latest jazz hits, including some of the new Broadway "Charleston" specialties.

Because of the outstanding educational features contained in the exhibits of the Cypress farm center and the Costa Mesa farm put on in conjunction with the Orange County Harbor Chamber of Commerce, these exhibits will be transported to the Riverside County fair, which opens September 20 for a week's run. They also will be taken to the Alhambra winter show. Action to that end was taken today by the members of the county advertising committee, headed by Dr. F. W. Slabough, county purchasing agent. Transportation expenses will be borne by the county.

Radio Stars Appear.

Special entertainment features, replete with thrills and novel sensations, including a gala presentation of the historical pageant written for the fair; a wild west rodeo featuring daring experts with rope and gun; the personal appearance of Miss Lucile Pinzon, movie star, and a galaxy of radio broadcasting stars from KJH, the Times, Los Angeles, were among attractions that, yesterday, brought another record crowd to the fair.

Again, and with perhaps a larger margin, all previous records for a single day's attendance were broken.

Parking space was at a premium in the afternoon. At an early hour in the evening motorists began to park their cars in the streets, and by 9 o'clock in the evening they were jammed as far west as Porter street.

Fast Pace at Rodeo.

The noise that rocked the arena yesterday afternoon and droned out in the fair grounds was from the rodeo, which was getting under way. It is always accompanied by a lot of noise. The cow punchers were at their best. From the grand entry until the last wild horse had been ridden, the pace was fast and furious, and at times so fast as to make the spectators uneasy for the safety of the animals.

Both the Los Angeles and Pasadena fire departments responded to the alarm, but arrived too late to save the building.

COUNTY FAIR TO CONTINUE SUNDAY

safety of the riders.

The allegory, with its color settings and historical characters, proved the main attraction of the evening program. Whatever may have been the rush for Chaplin's "Gold Rush" or Harold Lloyd's "The Freshman," it had nothing on the rush for seats at last night's performance. The allegory was preceded by an entertainment given by the KJH radio artists, including Queen Titania, the little Queen, and her court attendants. This added attraction no doubt contributed to swell the box receipts.

Five truck loads of extra chairs were rushed to the arena to provide seating accommodations for those who could not find seats in the grand stand.

On the spacious stage of the arena, in the blaze of myriad lights and to the accompaniment of sweet, enchanting music, appeared the different artists who combined to present an infinite variety of superb entertainment.

Horseshow Stars Perform

During the intermissions of the pageant, the audience was entertained by the star performers of the horseshow, whose graceful performances on their equine aristocrats won them generous applause.

The pageant given last night was even a bigger success than the opening performance Tuesday night. It will be given again tomorrow night and there is a public demand that an extra performance be given Sunday night. Adding a touch of dignity to the presentation is the stately appearance of Mrs. John Clarkson, prominent club woman of Santa Ana, acting as reader of the play.

There are so many contributing to this classic performance—all Orange county people—that there is no room in this account for each individual to be mentioned. Suffice to say that the cast of the principals in Miss Lash's sympathetic story is well balanced and each individual does excellent work. However, it is the auditor is fascinated and at times bewildered at the wonder of such excellent talent being introduced from among home people. Credit for the success of the show goes, in a large measure, to Professor Cianfoni and his orchestra.

A record crowd is expected for the "Charleston" dance contest to be staged tonight in the main feature tent, and for which there are a number of entries.

By buying locomotives of a type manufactured during war times, the Mukden-Hailung railway of China recently obtained 12 for $360,000 in Mexican money.

A new world's record in parachute jumping has been made at Oakland, Calif., where five aeronauts dropped simultaneously from the same balloon.

Mrs. Gertrude Hale, New York, a recluse living in a 14-room house, had 40 cats as companions when she died a short time ago.

Secretary Firm In Demands On Irrigation Men

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Leniency to land owners on western irrigation projects will be denied by Secretary of Interior Work, where they "deliberately refuse to make any payments" under the act of 1924, which provides funding arrangements for prior charges.

Commissioner Mead, of the bureau of reclamation, has notified land owners of this ruling, it became known, following reports that some instances that water users have planned to defer payments pending execution of contracts, so that the entire obligation may be funded. Under the act it was pointed out, it is optional with the secretary to amend outstanding contracts and unless financial inability to pay is proven to the board of survey and adjustments, the maintenance charges for 1924 and 1925 must be paid at their face value.

Five truck loads of extra chairs were rushed to the arena to provide seating accommodations for those who could not find seats in the grand stand.

WOMAN DEAD, 50 HURT IN WRECK

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Sept. 25.—An investigation was underway today to fix blame in the head-on collision of two express trains of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad, near Waverly, late yesterday.

Mrs. H. C. Bayer, of Cloquet, Minn., was crushed to death while playing cards. Fifty others, including trainmen, were injured. The impact was so great that nearby residents said their houses were shaken. The trains were wrecked, one turning over twice down an embankment to the outside of the track and the other landing upside down on the other side.

Had No Wife, So Sues Officer Who Said He Did Have

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 25.—If a man hasn't ever had a wife, it's wrong to arrest him for failing to support her.

So ruled Superior Judge Peter J. Shields here today in awarding damages of $1000 to W. D. Kenyon because he was falsely imprisoned at Red Bluff.

The award was made in Kenyon's suit against the bondsmen of W. R. Montgomery, city marshal of Red Bluff.

Kenyon produced evidence to show he had never been married and alleged that the charge upon which he was arrested and imprisoned for five days was "framed."

SAN FRANCISCO—William M.
Johnston, runner up for the national men's tennis title, and Ray Casey, California player, has returned from east to down in the rest of the Senators' team in fairness to the teams battling for third and fourth place money.

WINGO HITS HARD

"Red" Wingo, hard-hitting outfielder of the Detroit Tygers, has been clouting the old apple at a terrific pace of late and at this moment is not so far removed from the top of the American league batting heap. When "Red" hits 'em they travel. His timely stickwork has done much to aid the Detroit cause recently.

The Cheerful Cherub

Truth grows as we do,
year by year.
We change it with our words and acts—
But narrow-minded
people stall,
Obstructing life with last year's facts.

Y. M. C. A. MEN MEET TO TALK TRAINING WORK

Representing Y. M. C. A. groups in all parts of the county, approximately 100 men met at the high school cafeteria, Anaheim, last night to develop a course of studies in training men for Y. M. C. A.

Leadership.

Fred Dye and Homer Gould, well-known boys' workers of Hollywood, W. E. Stevenson, of Alhambra, and Warren Slater, of Pasadena Y. M.
C. A., were present as speakers and demonstrators of various phases of the work for boys in organized groups.

This session was the beginning of a series of training meets to be held during the next five weeks, it was said. Each Thursday evening, two training centers will be held in the county. Men from the north part of the county, including Anaheim and Fullerton and points north, will meet at Fullerton, while those from Orange and Santa Ana and other south points, will meet at Santa Ana Y. M. C. A. for dinner and an evening of training conference.

Knights of Pythias—With Tustin members, will attend meeting in Anaheim Monday night. No meeting will be held here Wednesday night, members and their ladies being invited to a K. of P. gathering at Downey.

Torosa Rebekahs—Will hold practice in the I. O. O. F. hall,
Monday afternoon, at 2 o'clock.

Federation No. 1, W. R. C.—
Will hold all-day meeting in the G. A. R. hall Monday, starting at 10 a. m.

Native Daughters—Will hold preliminary organization session in the M. W. A. hall, October 9, at 7:30 o'clock.

The Nut Cracker by Joe Williams

Harry Wills has claimed the heavyweight championship. If he goes away with it we're going to claim Rockefeller's fortune.

Bucky Harris writes he had to wear patched trousers as a kid.
... We had to wear them, too, but not as a kid.

St. Louis is the only city which has not won a pennant which may account for the fact that St. Louis has never had a baseball scandal.

Because he is too young, Fidel
La Barba, the new flyweight champion, will not be recognized by the New York Boxing commission. But maybe the good Mr. Browning will adopt him.

Reversing the situation, Jack Dempsey seems determined to stay out of the ring until he gets so old that even his closest friends won't be able to recognize him.

It is almost certain Washington will win the pennant again next year.... Every expert we talk to says the team is certain to finish third or worse.

Mr. Rockne hopes the rule makers will keep their hands off the forward pass.... In this connection we wish to say very few people managed to put their hands on any of Mr. Rockne's passes last season.

They still call racing the sport of kings.... Probably on the theory that if you stay at it long enough it will make a bum of you.

A suggestion has been made to the rule makers to expand golf courses to 24 holes
.... This strikes us as radical, in view of the fact that it was only recently the courses were reduced from 19 to 18 holes.

Gene Tunney wants to do something to give boxing a better tone.
... Why doesn't he get Galli-curt to pull on the gloves?

PRINCETON, N. J.—Two back-ties are being trained for the Princeton varsity, to be used in the opening game against Amherst October 3, and they may be alternated all season.

The ties have ordered the consumption of an apple after dinner in SAN FRANCISCO—Two games of major importance are on the schedule for the opening of Pacific coast football tomorrow. Stanford will meet the Olympic Club in Stanford stadium and California will play Santa Clara at Berkeley.

MOSCOW, Idaho—Having lost eight victories from last year's team, Coach Bob Mathews is driving hard to get his football team at the University of Idaho ready for the first game of the season, which Idaho must play college here October 3. Mathews is already teaching his men offensive plays and declares he is not going to "waste much time" on defensive work.

SALEM, Ore.—The Willamette uni-

where they play Washington at foot-

Mrs. Annie McWilliams of 331 East Fifth street, who has been in Los Angeles on a nursing case for the past 13 months, was in Santa Ana last Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Reisland of Los Angeles were recent guests at the home of the latter's father, W. F. Gully, 937 West Pine street.

J. W. Walls of Los Angeles, former well-known resident of this city, was here on business this week, having sold a portion of his Yorba Linda ranch. Mr. and Mrs. Walls plan an extensive traveling trip when the former disposes of all of his holdings.

Fred E. Collins, retired business man from Dallas, Texas, has gone to Los Angeles to visit a daughter, and will return here next week for a further visit with his sister-in-law and nephew, Mrs. Adeline M. Collins and Ralph Collins of 628 French street. He came to California 10 days ago, accompanying his nephew, when he came from his recent trip east. Mr. Collins also has a daughter in Riverside with whom he will spend a portion of his time.

Miss Bertha A. Ehlen, head stenographer in the law office of Scarborough, Forgy and Reinhaus, is spending a week's vacation with friends in Long Beach.

Alfred Coombs and his brother Frank Coombs, of Bakersfield, where the former is with the Standard Oil company, were visitors here last week with their sister, Miss Rassie Coombs, assistant bookkeeper with the D. A. Dale Hardware company.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Cox went to Los Angeles today to visit their daughters, Mrs. Ray Wood and Mrs. Ralph Phillips and this evening will attend a meeting of United Presbyterian church folk at Whitier.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Banks and son Bert of 702 Spurgeon street and the former's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Banks of Monrovia have gone on a two weeks' automobile trip to Medford, Ore. The Misses Mary and Helen Banks are staying at Monrovia with their cousins during their parents' absence.

Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Glover of Long Beach were guests yesterday of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Curtis of 222 South Main street, the quartet motorizing to Pomona for the fair. Mr. and Mrs. Curtis returned to Long Beach this afternoon with their friends to spend the weekend.

Miss Jesse Gordon Whyte and her sister, Miss Ann Whyte of Dallas, Tex., who have been house-guests for three weeks at the home of Mrs. C. W. Hyde Jr., of 407 West Santa Clara avenue, left Tuesday for their homeward journey. Among the pleasant social events honoring the visitors was a tea given in Los Angeles by Mrs. Gene Kuder, at which Mrs. Hyde, her guests and her mother, Mrs. Minnie Nary, were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Johnson of 421 South Broadway and their house-guest, Mrs. Sadie Clevenger of Oscoda, Ia., who is in Southern California to pass the winter season, went to San Diego today to spend the weekend.

Mrs. Fred C. Fluor of 2507 North Main street has gone to Visalia to visit with her sister, Mrs. Ernest Mueller and family, who have changed their residence from San Luis Obispo on account of Mrs. Mueller's health. Mrs. Fluor will be away for three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Fluor of 1514 North Main street have returned from a brief business trip to Yuma, Ariz. They report that the roads were fair.

Victor E. Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Walker of 1066 West Third street, left yesterday for Stanford University, where he will matriculate this year, taking up literature and journalism, in which he will specialize.

The little child died on the way to the Orange County hospital, a few minutes after he was struck by the car, death resulting from a fractured skull.

Funeral services have been announced for 2 p. m. Monday, with burial in Fairhaven cemetery.

HURT WHEN AUTO AND CYCLE CRASH

James G. Bailey, 27, 915 East Fifth street, is in a serious condition in a Pomona hospital, as the result of injuries received last Sunday evening, when the motorcycle on which he was riding collided with an automobile, driven by Lester Ingram, of Pomona, at Pomona, according to word received here today.

Bailey is suffering from a fractured skull. Reports received here today were to the effect that his condition showed improvement during the last 24 hours.

Bailey has been an employee of the Southern California Edison company here for several years, working as a lineman.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

One of the means employed by local Rebekahs to raise funds for the L. O. O. F. Orphans' home at Gilroy, is the rummage sale which Torosa Rebekah Lodge holds each year at the beginning of the winter season. Today the date of the 1925 sale was announced as October 1, 2 and 3 and the place as the Fine building at the corner of Fourth and French streets. The sale will be an all-day affair on each of the three days, with Torosa members alternating in offering their services as salesladies.

The north-west section of the Ladies' Aid of the First Presbyterian church will hold a mystery tea on Dr. Burlew's lawn Wednesday afternoon, September 30, at two o'clock. Los Angeles artists will furnish the entertainment from 2 until 3 o'clock. There are many other attractions that should please the most particular of persons. The public is invited to attend.

In view of the announcement of the Oratorio Society of Orange county that it plans to present the "Messiah" with the Symphony orchestra as a Christmas offering, various choir directors of the county have been consulted and have promised their co-operation. This should assure an excellent rendition of this oratorio which is known all over the world. All singers who are interested in this work are invited to attend a rehearsal to be held Tuesday evening, September 29 at 7:30 o'clock at the Franzen hall, 139 Glassell street, the Orange. One hundred and thirty singers are already on the list but the committee expects that there will be at least 200 by the time of the concert.

The conductor in charge will be

F. C. Salbach. He conducted the "Creation" by Haydn with the Philharmonic orchestra in Orange in 1924 and in 1925, conducted Mendelssohn's "Elijah" with the Symphony orchestra in Long Beach.

The committee in charge of the work consists of H. G. Schmeler, Anaheim; William Battermann, Orange; Carl Gutmann, Santa Ana; Fred Elsner, Anaheim, and W. H. Girton, Garden Grove.

Illinois Man Says That He Found Black-Draught to Be a "Good Active Medicine."

Edwardsville, Ill.—Mr. Walter W. Macdonald, of 711 Fairview Avenue, this city, says that he has taken Black-Draught, when needed, for a period of ten years or longer.

"I used to suffer," he says, "with indigestion, a tight feeling in my chest after meals—felt sluggish, lazy and dull and out of sorts. I would be very constipated."

"Some one recommended Black-Draught and began using it. I found it very satisfactory. I have used it ever since. I wouldn't be without it."

"My work is inside. I do not get as much exercise as I would like, and at times my system gets clogged and I would see the necessity of a good active medicine."

"After one or two doses of Black-Draught, my head clears up and I feel like new."

"For stomach or liver trouble, Black-Draught does good."

Theford's Black-Draught is recommended by thousands of others for the relief of many common ailments due to a torpid liver, needing laxative or cathartic stimulation.

It is purely vegetable, mild, but positive, in action, and leaves no bad after-effects.

Obtainable everywhere. Take

Santa Anans Share in Pleasant Meeting of Musical Club

S. A. COUNTRY CLUB SETTING FOR BRILLIANT DINNER PARTY

Quite a little group of Santa Anans were among those who enjoyed the September meeting of the Ellis Rhodes club which took place Wednesday evening in Los Angeles at the studio of the club's founder and leader, Ellis Rhodes.

The club membership is comprised of those who are interested in the furtherance of good music as well as voice pupils of Mr. Rhodes and each month a meeting offers a valuable program as well as interesting social features.

Anheim will be the scene of the October meeting at which a Russian theme will be illustrated by characteristic songs. The November meeting will be held in Santa Ana with another interesting program in view, possibly the one on early church music which is in preparation for a future event.

Wednesday night's program included a group by Harry Lauder, nephew of the famous Scot, who gave numbers which will be included in the programs of a forty-week Orpheum tour upon which he will embark almost at once. Miss Betty Wickersham sang an Italian song of the fourteenth century and a dainty French number. Warren Colman and Miss Fay Tuttle also gave appreciated solos.

A trio composed of Holly Lash Visel, Mr. Rhodes and Reginald Taylor sang a song written in 1524 and later, with the addition of Cecil Fross Willits, gave a song of the seventeenth century as a quartette number. A general discussion and many questions regarding voice production and training followed, and the evening ended upon the serving of light refreshments in which Mr. Rhodes was assisted by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Rhodes, formerly Miss Dora Hamlin, sister of Mrs. Ellis Rhodes (June Hamilton Rhodes).

Among those motoring to Los Angeles for the event were Miss Burr Armstrong, whose clever accompaniments marked many of the song numbers; Mr. and Mrs. Horace B. Van Dien, LaRue Flippo Mayer, Mrs. G. J. Daley, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Willits, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Medbery, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hayden and others from Orange and Anaheim.

After a short business meeting at which it was decided to hold a Hallowe'en party on October 28, a program of games and various contests was enjoyed by the guests.

Excellent readings were given by some of the young people of the church. George Munroe gave

"People Will Talk You Know" and "When Papa Was Sick." Eloise Schrier read "A Domestic Ripple" and "What the Trouble Was" and John Schrier convulsed his audience with "Long Pants" and "How Johnny Read the Newspaper."

At the Hallowe'en party a silver offering will be collected in order to help pay the expenses. All of the women of the congregation are cordially invited to be present.

South-west section members of the First Presbyterian Aid society held the first meeting of the year yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. T. Battey on South Birch street. After a short business session during which the activities for the coming winter were planned, a delightful program was

After the ceremony, Mrs. Crookshank and Miss Lida Crookshank served dainty wedding ices and cake from a table charming with Japanese anemones in white and delicate pink. Mr. and Mrs. Eakin left almost immediately for Anaheim where a home at 309 West Center street was all in readiness for their coming. A honeymoon trip will be enjoyed later by the happy couple.

Only a few guests were bidden to the ceremony, those present including in addition to the officiating minister, the Rev. Mr. Porter, Mrs. Porter, Mrs. Crookshank, Miss Lida Crookshank, Miss Blanche Cartmill, Miss Bertha Miller, all of Santa Ana, and Miss Violet Nickelson of Whittier.

Among details of the affair of marked interest to the Santa Anans, was meeting Evelyne Nunn Miller (Mrs. Howard Earl Miller) and having the opportunity to extend congratulations upon her success at the California State Fair where her painting, "Timberline" won first cash prize. The painting is of Rainier and resulted from the extended northern trip taken by Mr. and Mrs. Miller last year. Evelyne Nunn Miller is the daughter of Mrs. M. A. Nunn, 802 North Ross street, and her successful career as an artist is matter of Santa Ana, and Miss Violet Nickelson of Whittier.

CHURCH SOCIETIES

Mrs. M. B. Youel of 530 East Seventeenth street was hostess to the north-east section of the First Presbyterian Aid society Wednesday afternoon. Assisting her in her duties as hostess were Mrs. Lamme, Mrs. Will Blee, Mrs. Frank Schmidt, Mrs. Mary Whitson and Mrs. Webb.

After a short business meeting at which it was decided to hold a Hallowe'en party on October 28, a program of games and various contests was enjoyed by the guests.

Excellent readings were given by some of the young people of the church. George Munroe gave

"People Will Talk You Know" and "When Papa Was Sick." Eloise Schrier read "A Domestic Ripple" and "What the Trouble Was" and John Schrier convulsed his audience with "Long Pants" and "How Johnny Read the Newspaper."

At the Hallowe'en party a silver offering will be collected in order to help pay the expenses. All of the women of the congregation are cordially invited to be present.

South-west section members of the First Presbyterian Aid society held the first meeting of the year yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. T. Battey on South Birch street. After a short business session during which the activities for the coming winter were planned, a delightful program was

Tiny Lad Celebrates First Birthday

Little La Moyne Hutton of 1916 Maple street celebrated his first birthday Wednesday by having a birthday party to which were invited many of his small friends and their mothers.

After the afternoon had been spent in playing most of the games so dear to the hearts of childhood, Mrs. Hutton, mother of the wee host, served delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake.

Those invited to take part in the party were: Little Beverly Short, Betty Jane Sheeley, James Richard Duckett, De Wayne Breece, Griswold Cunningham, Jimmie Carre, Dean Shields, Juanita Reddington Gerald, Harold and Robert Shick, and Billie Baer.

There were 47 members and guests present to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Battey and her assisting hostesses who added a happy touch to the afternoon by serving ice cream and cake. The hostess group included Mrs. E. Q. Avery, Mrs. J. E. Ellison, Miss Essie Britton, Miss Louise Brokaw and Miss Robbie Jones.

Ebell Travel Section
Plans Interesting Year's Work

At the first meeting of the year of Ebell's second travel section last Monday at the clubhouse, the members in addition to their enjoyment of a pot-luck luncheon as planned by the hostess for the day, Mrs. W. W. Anderson, had also the pleasure of hearing an outline of the year's work given by the program committee.

Another event of interest was the traveleage presented by Mrs. J. R. Medlock who told of her summer's trip to Alaska. The comprehensive and eloquent description of the journey was given in the lounge whither the members adjourned after luncheon in the black and orange section room.

During the coming year the section will enjoy the following program: October, luncheon with Mrs. J. H. Rankin as hostess assisted by Mrs. R. J. Thompson and Mrs. J. H. Walker. A geographical survey of South America with papers on "Climate and People" by Mrs. Walker and on "Plant and Animal Life," Mrs. Addie Collins.

November: Pot-luck luncheon at the home of Mrs. E. B. Burns. South American program continues: "Education and Religion," Mrs. George Reyburn; "Social Life," Dr. Estelle Workman. December and January meetings will be combined with a banquet at the clubhouse honoring husbands of members. Banquet committee members will be Mrs. W. W. Anderson, Mrs. Victor Montgomery, Mrs. John L. Wheeler, Mrs. C. F. Cross, Mrs. S. M. Dearing and Miss Mary Taylor.

The program and entertainment committee will be composed of Mrs. Theo. Winbigler, Mrs. Burns and Mrs. Mit Phillips and Mrs. Deering will recite "A Christmas Story."

February will offer the regular luncheon with Mrs. J. R. Medlock as hostess assisted by Mrs. A. Winbigler, Mrs. E. C. Nelson and Mrs. W. D. Baker. The program will be "Trade Relations between North and South America," Mrs. Victor Montgomery; "The Emigrant's Chance and Labor Conditions" by Mrs. W. W. Anderson.

Mrs. J. L. Wheeler will be hostess at the April meeting and a pot-luck luncheon will be served. The program will offer "Rio: City of Enchantment" by Mrs. R. J. Thompson; "How Brazil Felt Toward the Portuguese" by Miss Mary Taylor and "A Brazilian Forecast" by Mrs. C. E. French.

In May Mrs. C. E. French will be hostess with Mrs. Mit Phillips and Mrs. George Reyburn as her committee. Mrs. E. C. Nelson will give the paper on "Argentina: Its Landscapes and the City of Good Airs" and Mrs. J. L. Wheeler will talk on "Why Argentina Prospered" by MacFayden.

There were 47 members and guests present to enjoy the hospitality of Mrs. Battey and her assisting hostesses who added a happy touch to the afternoon by serving

Hermosa Folk Will Outfit Small Maids

Hermosa Circle members are anticipating a great deal of pleasure in sewing for a group of nine little girls on Thursday October 1 when circle members and all interested friends will devote the entire day to the charitable deed. Plans for the day were perfected yesterday at the afternoon meeting of the circle when the needs of a worthy family of the city, were brought to the attention of the members at the business session preceding an afternoon of cards.

The family to profit by the day's sewing, is an interesting one and all manner of serviceable and pretty little frocks are planned for the nine small girls, by the kindly Eastern Stars. The meeting will be an all-day one with pot-luck luncheon at noon. Anyone interested is invited to come and help in the good work.

Mrs. Cora Cavins was chairman of yesterday's social afternoon held at the Masonic temple, and was assisted by a committee composed of Mesdames W. D. Baker, Alice Tubbs, Adelaide Lowe, David Wolfson, Arthur Pease and C. E. Moore. Cards were played and after the lively session the hostesses serving appetizing refreshments.

Community Player Essays New Role

Arrival of a son to Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Patterson of Hollywood on Wednesday, September 23, was a matter of much interest to the many local friends of Mrs. Patterson, formerly Miss Dorothy Dagley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Farrell H. Dagley of Orange avenue.

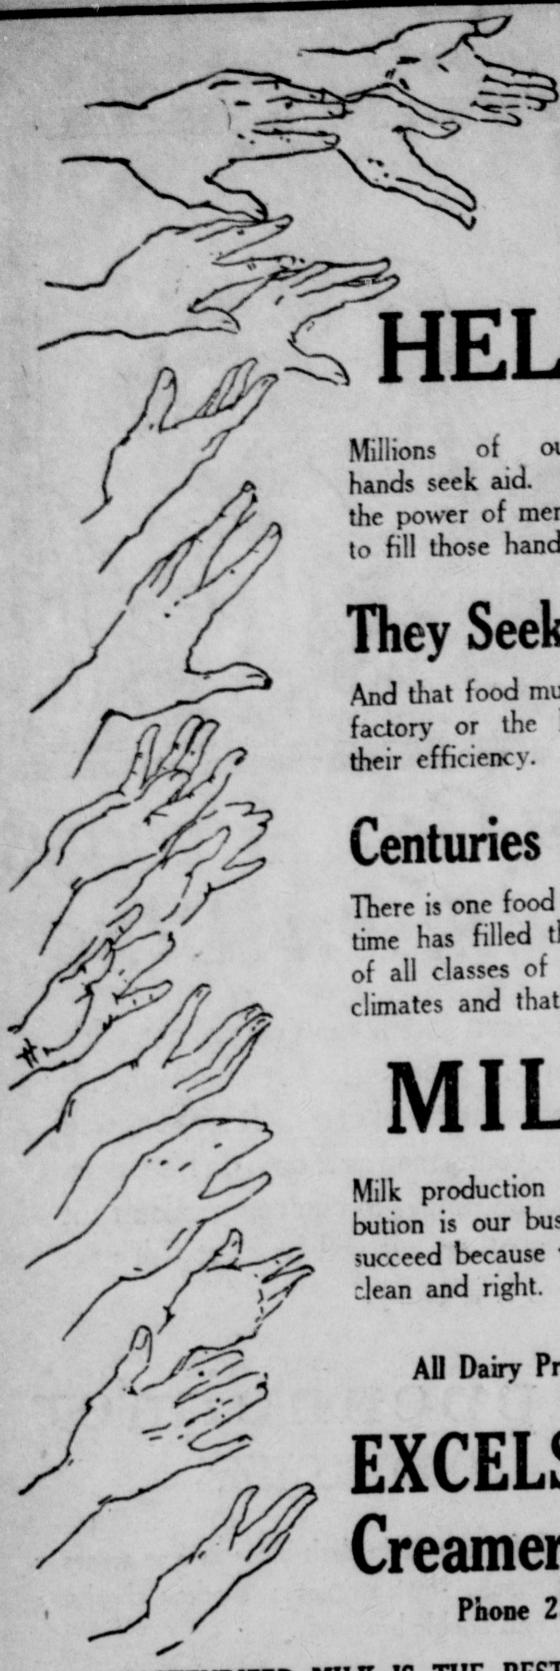

The laddie made his bow to the world at the Hollywood hospital. His mother will be remembered for her portrayals of various roles with Santa Ana Community Players, especially her work as feminine lead in the domestic comedy drama, "The First Year." Her admirers are anxious to see her in her new role as young mother.

RODEO ACTORS MARRY THROUGH BIG TOP WORK

Another romance of the circus was brought to light under the stock tent at the Orange County fair today, when it was discovered that Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Rufus, special entertainers in the rodeo, are old circus performers and only recently left the combined Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey shows at Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parker of Palmdale, are the other old circus hands who met and married while traveling with the show. Mr. and Mrs. Parker were members of the old Buffalo Bill circus troupe. Rufus, still in his twenties, has been with the circus for 11 years. When a boy, he ran away from home in Texas. He joined a cowboy crew on a cattle ranch in Wyoming, but soon left to join a circus as a water boy.

"I always liked to rope things," Rufus explained. He practices continually.

After he had been with the circus for a time, he met the woman who is now his wife, then a trick rider for Ringling Brothers. They continued their work until they reached Long Beach. There, impressed by the country and remembering Santa Ana, the town they had just left, they quit the show and returned here for an engagement with the fair rodeo.

Rufus declared that his wife and himself were favorably impressed with Orange county and Santa Ana in particular.

$10,000 L. A. OPEN LURES GOLF STARS

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 25.—Golf week, which is to be staged early next January, will find the best golfers in the country participating in matches on Southern California courses.

Gene Sarazen, former open champion and at present metropolitan champion, Al Watrous, Mike Brady, Bobby Cruckshank, Tom Kerrigan and Johnny Farrell have signed up for competition in the $10,000 Los Angeles open, an event which promises to become one of the greatest golf tournaments of the west. At least 50 others are expected to sign for the event in the near future.

Sculptor Carves Animals In Ice

G. Goldie Lightonberg, ice artist, who performs daily at the Taylor cannery display in the industrial tent, is one of the main attractions in that division. Lightonberg, with a chisel and a few other tools, chips a large variety of animals from huge pieces of ice. A large crowd gathers about the booth each afternoon and evening at 2:30 o'clock and 7:30 o'clock, when Lightonberg does the carving. Bunches of grapes, flowers and fruit frozen in large pieces of ice, add to the attractiveness of the Taylor booth.

WEST ORANGE HAS SPLENDID EXHIBIT

Among the outstanding exhibits in the big feature tent is the community display of the West Orange farm center, which was awarded second prize in the specialized class.

It was designed and worked up by a fair committee composed of G. B. Bradford, chairman, W. A. Dyer, Mrs. Waters, Mrs. G. B. Bradford, Albert Struck and H. J. Hinricks.

Mounting the exhibit is a large heart of walnuts, representing West Orange, the "heart of Orange county."

The heart has about 50 pounds of selected budded nuts, the assembling of which to form the heart took many hours of tedious work. This painstaking work, requiring the utmost care, was done by Mr. and Mrs. Bradford.

The decorative scheme was planned by Mrs. Waters, assisted by Mrs. Bradford. They were assisted by W. A. Dyer, who contributed different specimens of fruit and vegetables for the display. Other specimens were contributed by Roy K. Bishop.

The Olympic fields country club, Chicago, Sept. 25.—Two 18 hole golf courses, whipped by a stiff and chilly wind, were invaded today by four golf teachers who play the game so well that they alone survive in the semi-final round of the Professional Golfers' association championship.

Walter Hagen, defending his professional title, survived the quarter final round after one of the most desperate matches ever witnessed in a championship tournament. He eliminated Leo Diegel, the New York sharpshooter, one up on the fortieth hole, and was matched today with Harry Cooper of Dallas, Texas, who won his match yesterday from Johnny Farrell, 2 and 1.

The other match today brought "Wild Bill" Mehlhorn of Chicago against Morte Dutra, Aberdeen, Wash.

7 COLLEGE ELEVENS TO PLAY TOMORROW

Seven Southern California college football teams will spring into action in the first games of the season tomorrow.

The University of Southern California meets Whittier and California School of Technology at the Los Angeles coliseum in a double header.

University of California, Southern Branch, will entertain the San Diego State Teachers' college on the Grizzly campus. The Grizzlies fought a 14 to 14 tie with the San Diego team last fall.

Occidental will play La Verne college at La Verne.

Coach Howard Jones, new member at U. S. C. ordered numbered jerseys issued to 48 players for tomorrow. A final scrimmage was held on the U. S. C. campus last night.

Piping 'Em Off

Yesterday's Hero—Babe Ruth, Yankee slugger, hit a homer in the tenth with the bases filled and beat the White Sox, 6 to 5.

The Senators clinched the American league pennant by beating the Indians in a double header 4 to 3 and 6 to 2. Reuther won his 18th game for Washington in the first game and Alec Ferguson turned in the pennant winner.

The Giants clinched second place in when Jack Scott sent out the Pirates 4 to 0. The Pirates took it easy.

Ruffing, a rookie pitcher, let the Tigers down with four hits and the Red Sox won 5 to 0.

The Robins ran their string of consecutive losses to eleven when they were dropped by the Reds, 3 to 2, in eleven innings.

SHORT SPORTS

CHICAGO—Jean Bonstra and James Brunnon, French tennis stars, are being praised for sportsmanship. They had thoroughly whipped George Lott and Lucien Williams of Chicago in the open tennis championship of the international tennis championship at the Chicago town and tennis club and needed but one point to win. At this juncture the Frenchmen defied the international. This allowed the Chicagoans to continue in the matches. Otherwise, the Frenchmen would have had to default the second round because they caught a train for New York to return to France.

ATLANTA, Ga.—All square at the first turn, the Atlanta Crackers and the New Worth Panthers moved toward today for the third game of the Dixie series there tomorrow. The Panthers' win, 7 to 1, yesterday, evened the series, one all.

STUDY COURSE GIVEN COUNTY BANK CLERKS

The board of governors of the Orange county chapter of the American Institute of Banking met in Anaheim last night and took preliminary steps to organize among bank clerks of the county a class for the study of negotiable paper, according to a statement today by P. N. Hood, of Santa Ana, president of the chapter.

Henry Shaffer Jr., of Los Angeles, will be the instructor. Shaffer is fully competent to teach the subject, Hood said.

Persons interested in joining the class should meet at the Anaheim Union high school at 7:30 p. m., Thursday, October 1, it was asserted. If sufficient interest is shown, a class in public speaking also will be organized.

Instruction is under the direction of the American Institute of Banking and diplomas will be awarded those who complete the course of 23 lessons.

More than 50 bank clerks of the county last year took the course in commercial law, and it is expected they will take the course arranged for this winter.

The class will meet every Thursday night until the course is completed.

HOLD INQUEST INTO DEATH OF CYCLE RIDER

Ralph W. Ellis, 47, 311 Halesworth street, came to his death from an acute pulmonary edema of the lungs, as the result of falling from his motorcycle, according to a verdict returned by the coroner's jury, which held an inquest over his body at the Smith and Tuthill funeral parlors, yesterday afternoon.

Ellis died at the Santa Ana Valley hospital early yesterday morning as the result of injuries received when he fell from his motorcycle at the intersection of First and Spurgeon streets late Saturday afternoon.

He attempted to dodge an automobile which turned suddenly around the corner, facing him, and when he did, the motorcycle crashed into a telephone pole, it was brought out at the inquest.

Funeral services will be held at the Smith and Tuthill funeral parlors at 3 p. m. tomorrow. Burial will be made in Fairhaven cemetery.

S. A. FOLK VISIT ANGELUS TEMPLE

More than 100 members of the Four Square Gospel church, in Santa Ana, went to Los Angeles yesterday afternoon and attended the evening baptismal service in Angelus temple. It was purely a Santa Ana night at the temple, 15 of the number being baptized in addition to 60 more from the temple.

Anna Britton led in the opening prayer, and the leaders in the different departments of the branch tabernacle gave an account of the work here. On the platform were two immense banners in red with the words "Santa Ana Branch of the Four Square Gospel Church, Angelus Temple."

The choir from the branch church in Santa Ana furnished the music and prior to the baptismal ceremony, Aimee Semple McPherson, delivered a brief evangelistic address.

Police News

W. L. Corbett, 19, was admitted to the Orange county jail last night to begin a five-day sentence for speeding. He is a truck driver, residing in Santa Ana.

Members of the sheriff's office here have been asked to search for Joe Lewis, who escaped from deputy sheriffs of Los Angeles county late yesterday. Lewis was arrested on a burglary charge and escaped from the officers on Telegraph road, four miles south of Santa Fe Springs, according to a report received here. He fled in an automobile and is thought to have come to Santa Ana.

Charged with issuing a fictitious check, Charles Davidson, 36, was arrested last night by Constable Jesse Elliott and lodged in the county jail. The check in question was for $1.32, given to the Edwards Service station. The check was drawn on the First National bank of Santa Ana. Davidson has not been arraigned.

YOST THEATER

At the beginning of his flying experience Captain Charles Nungesser sat at the Officers' mess table with six other flyers in his squadron. The next day one fell to earth in combat; then another was taken; then the third; the fourth; the fifth; the sixth. Then six more took their places—and they were taken; and six more took their places—and they were taken, until 74 men had come and gone from that table—while Nungesser, alone remained alive! He was absent from it at times while he recovered from 17 wounds, but he remained to become the greatest living ace on earth!

An explosive bullet went off in his teeth at 12,000 feet, but he fought on and landed safely, somehow, with two more victories to his wonderful record.

He is officially cited for the destruction of 45 German planes and further credited with 60 more—a total of 105.

This great hero of the air is the hero of "The Sky Raider," the picture showing now at the Yost theater, in which he is featured with Jacqueline Logan. This is probably the first time there has come to the motion picture industry a man who is internationally great for his own personal achievements. Aviation is his life—his passion—and it is his hope that "The Sky Raider" may turn the minds of men to the new trails of the high air, where the flying mail and the globe circles have blazed the way for the commerce of the sky.

WALKER'S THEATER
Opening today at Walker's theater is a five-act vaudeville bill that is a humdinger and a real entertaining race horse picture, "Kentucky Pride."

So replete with interesting features is "Kentucky Pride" that it is impossible to enumerate them all in a limited space. It should be suffice to say that it is without doubt one of the greatest race horse pictures ever on any screen. J. Farrell McDonald, the famous Corporal Casey of "The Iron Horse" injects his inimitable humor into many of the scenes. Other ers in the cast include Gertrude Astor, Peaches Jackson and Henry B. Walthall.

The Gypsy Serenaders, European sensational dance revue, head an unusual good vaudeville bill. They are artists in everything they do and with their snappy personality will be welcomed by any audience.

Julia Edward offers an unusual novelty. Her happy smile is sure to win her many friends.

The Musical Lavonnas offer a Spanish instrumental and dancing novelty. It is one of those acts that satisfies. There is never a doubt of its being pleasing and entertaining.

Ruby Rossina is a delineator of negro songs and stories and has the faculty of putting their mannerisms over the footlights. She has a world of personality, smiles and witty sayings which serve to keep a fun seeking audience in a happy frame of mind.

Clara and Harry Keating are a happy combination of voice and personality. Their repertoire of songs has been carefully selected for them and put over in a manner that shows ability and careful attention to every detail.

ange county municipalities.

Recounting observations made on a recent trip to Mexico, George T. Peabody, of Newport Beach, urged duplication of water systems in the cities of the county and use of ocean water for the sewage systems.

Pointing out that Santa Ana and other communities of the county have to lift domestic water more than 175 feet, he said that any city located near the ocean and at an elevation not in excess of 150 feet could pump water from the ocean for use in sewers as cheaply as they are now pumping from underground streams.

Warns Long Beach.

Tuffree issued a note of warning against asserted activities of Long Beach in acquiring property in the Westminster district for the purpose of developing water for domestic use in that city.

"Y" Tumblers Please Crowd

The Y. M. C. A. tumblers, who perform daily in the main tent of the Orange County fair, are loudly applauded at each appearance.

Under the direction of R. R. Rusick, physical director at the Y. M. C. A., the five boys have given clever horizontal bar demonstrations. A. Moulton, J. Madlener, Fred Durbin, Homer Anderson and Donald Anderson are the members of the team. Several performances have been given by the tumblers and they are planning more exhibitions.

STATE LEGION COMMANDER AT S. A. GATHERING

at the same time was the quietest.

"It was the best this department ever had, and I challenge you to find a better representation anywhere than the delegates who were sent there from various posts," he said.

Policy is Outlined

"I suppose you want to know what I intend to do this year as state commander. My platform is the same as the one that elected James A. Drain to the office of national commander: 'For God and Country, without prejudice or politics, tolerance in religion, a business policy for the Legion with the same spirit that moved us in the war.'

Commander Bixby promised that he would not appoint a single member as a state chairman until he had talked personally with the man and assured himself that the work he was given to do would be done, and that he then would expect the appointed to select his own committeemen.

"I believe in experts as chairmen, and the chairman of the membership committee, for instance, I will expect to specialize in membership work, the same as I would expect the chairman of the Boy Scouts committee to work solely for the Boy Scouts. My job is to see that all committees function, and that is what I am going to do."

Ready For Big Things

"There are many men right here in Santa Ana who should be members of the American Legion, but they have not joined because they are waiting for the legion to find itself. We now are approaching that time when we are ready to do big things. The legion is reaching out, more and more, and the nation is beginning to realize that the legion has become a potent factor in the welfare of the country. We can continue this recognition through co-operation with our chambers of commerce, our schools and other important civic organizations."

Elmer Schaniel announced that a total of 71 new members had been added to the post's membership during the year which closed last night.

In a brief address, T. E. Stephenson told the post that the Register did not want special thanks for the publicity the post had received during the last year. He said that the paper stood for ideals such as the post had fought for, and that any special effort given to aid the post through the newspaper columns was done because the work of the American Legion is of importance, and that the help the Register had given was done in line of duty.

Emerson said, "The reward of virtue is virtue, and I have often wondered whether he said that first or the other wise man, who said that 'virtue is its own reward,' was the originator of that bit of wisdom. Of course, they mean the same thing," said J. P. Baumgartner, when he was called on to address the post.

"Dr. Frank Crane said of Emerson's phrase, that it is like toast, the more you chew it the more you get out of it.

Realizes Importance of Work

"So we come here tonight with a somewhat overwhelming sense of our unworthiness of this courtesy and compliment and honor that you have paid us. Anything that The Register may have done to encourage and help in the work of the American Legion has been done in the line of duty, and also in the line of improving a great opportunity. We have not been conscious of any special effort to help the American Legion, any more than any other organization whose work and ideals are worthy of support. If we have seemed to give American Legion activities more space and prominence than those of some other organizations it must be that the work of the American Legion is of more interest and importance and of greater aggressiveness than that of some other organizations.

"However, we are very human and therefore we are very proud and pleased at this compliment you have paid us.

"Whatever may be the real values and true proportions in this respect and matter, the fact remains that the American Legion does stand as a sign and symbol. Indeed it is the very soul of the loftiest ideal the world has ever known. For whatever the president and congress may have had in the back of their minds as the real reason for entering the World war, undoubtedly the average soldier entered that war and fought through it, offering himself as a living sacrifice on the altar of the ideal that the world should be made free for democracy.

"If the spirit and soul of that ideal shall be the guiding star of the American Legion in all the relations of life, it can and will exert an influence for the common good throughout the next generation that will be the biggest thing of an altruistic and ethical nature in all the history of civilization down to date."

Hollywood Buckaroo Wins Two Rodeo Contests

TUG OF WAR ON HORSES GIVES THRONG THRILL

Irvine Polo Team Beaten By Squad Under Direction of G. Shriver

Tom Sutton, Hollywood rider, won first honors in both the bronco and steer riding contests yesterday afternoon. Sutton has taken third twice during the past two days in the street riding contests.

C. Garrison was awarded second place in the street riding yesterday afternoon, with C. Martinez, third.

Hank Smith, a new rider to place, won second in the bronco breaking. Claud Humphrey, another new winner, placed third in the bronco event.

Fay Adams and Tom Scott, two boys from the movie colony, carried off the honors in the cow milking contest. The two have captured the first prize two times in three days. Al Allen and J. Clark were second in the event.

Fay Adams knocked Joe Cline off his throne in the calf roping contest yesterday when he roped and tied a calf in 30 seconds. Cline won on the first two days of the contest. He failed to place yesterday. Jack Jones won second in the event and Jim Bain was third.

A mounted tug-of-war gave the crowd which filled the bleachers a thrill. Jim Parker's team pulled the team headed by Joe Wade over the line to win the event.

G. Shriver and his rough riding polo players turned the tables on the Irvine ranch polo team, led by George Studley, and took the event yesterday. The Irvine team won Wednesday.

Shriver followed the polo match by a win in the relay race over a number of contestants. Joe Wade was second in the relay.

BOUQUET WINS FIRST PRIZE

Mrs. Mirrie Wilson McElhanon, of the Bouquet shop, and the basket of cut flowers with which she won first prize at the Orange County fair. The Bouquet shop, 103 West Fourth street, is owned and operated by William M. McElhanon and his wife, who though new in the flower business here, have been residents of Santa Ana for years. The prize winning basket was composed of lavender asters, budica, premier and Claudio Prenet roses.

ORANGE COUNTY POULTRY DOES WELL AT FAIR

Poultry raisers of Orange county today had proved beyond a doubt that Orange county is an ideal poultry community. In practically all classes of chickens and poultry, local fanciers carried off the honors.

Sweepstakes in the standard class for poultry was taken by H. E. Scholl, a Long Beach poolman.

The Goetze Anaconda Farm between Santa Ana and Orange carried off sweepstakes awards in the utility class. Goetze also won almost all first, second and third prize awards in the utility class besides a number of other special prizes.

In the special awards for bantams, C. S. Kelley's Pastime Farm won everything. Cups for the best white Cochin bantam, best display of Cochin bantams, best black Cochin, best bantam in the show, best buff Cochin, largest display of bantams, best partridge Cochin bantam, best pen of bantams, best display of ornamental bantams, best black comb comb bantam cock, best white rosecomb bantam, best dark Cornish bantam cock, best Golden Seabright bantam, and the best Silver Seabright bantam were all awarded to the Pastime farm.

F. H. Albers of Orange was awarded special prize for the best pen utility Rhode Island reds.

J. H. Thompson, of Pasadena, won the special award for the best standard Anconas.

Fred Heying of Anaheim was awarded the special prize for the best pen of standard Rhode Island reds.

The prize for the best pen of white Leghorn standard fowls was awarded to Fred Heying of Anaheim.

Will Hatch of Tustin was awarded the prize for the best utility white Leghorn cock.

Mrs. J. C. Hart of Garden Grove was the winner of the special award offered for the best standard Barred Rock cock.

Mrs. E. E. Fairchild won the prize for the best pair of bronze turkeys.

Sweepstakes awards for the best cock and hen in the entire poultry show were awarded to T. C. Martin of Pasadena.

Fred Heying of Anaheim had the best pullet in the show, according to the judges.

The Koenig Poultry farm of El Modena carried off the honors for the best breeding pen. The Koenig farm also was awarded the prize for the best white Leghorn in the utility class.

The best Ancona pen in the utility class was entered by the Goetze Ancona farm.

POLY ELEVEN BEGINS TO SHOW PROMISE

By ED. WHEELAN

SPORTS OF ALL SORTS

Several important changes that were made last year in the football rules promise to make the great collegiate game more interesting than ever in the approaching season.

The changes can be outlined best and explained by the following article written by Knute Rockne, coach of the Notre Dame football team, for the American Boy, and reprinted by its courtesy:

"Football is going to be a lot more fun for the fellows in the stands this year, and for players as well, because the ball is to be kicked from the 40-yard line instead of from middlefield."

"Last year two radical changes in the kick-off were made. The tee which all good kickers used was declared illegal, and the ball was kicked from the 50-yard line. It was thought that eliminating the tee, and thus cutting down both height and distance of the ball's flight, would compensate for the 10-yard difference.

Eliminate Greatest Thrill
"But it didn't. Repeatedly high school and college kickers, accustoming themselves to a teeless kick-off, sent the ball over the goal line for a touchback. That meant that it was brought out to the 20-yard line and put in play. And one of the greatest thrills in football, the return of the kick-off, was almost entirely eliminated from the game."

"In only a few cases—Red Grange's 95-yard run at the start of the Illinois-Michigan game was one of them—were the spectators treated to the colorful thrilling sight of a man catching the ball, and ten others forming themselves into an interference in front of him to dash down the field. So the Football Rules committee, conferring on 1925 rules, decided that henceforth kick-offs would be made from the 40-yard line without the tee."

"A major result of this rule change will be that teams will develop a strong kick-off return. Another important rule change is that affecting the penalty when the defensive team is offside. The penalty is five yards as before, but the down remains the same. Under the old rules, which penalized the offenders five yards and made it first down, unfair hardships were sometimes worked."

Re-Define Scrimmage Line

"To clarify a technical point, the line of scrimmage was re-defined as a vertical plane between the two teams, rather than an imaginary line on the grounds. This means that the heads of the linemen, as well as their hands and all other parts of their bodies, must be back of the line of scrimmage."

"The penalty in clipping has been standardized with the same purpose—to avoid misunderstanding. When a man 'clips' an opponent—that is, throws his body across the legs of the other fellow from behind and brings him down—his team is penalized 25 yards from the spot where the clipping took place. Last year

Veteran Tackle To Have Big Year For Santa Ana, Belief

FLOYD REISTER

Playing his last season in the Santa Ana high school spangles, Floyd ("Tex") Reister, veteran tackle, is expected to have his greatest football year this fall. Reister is big and fast and experienced. He is after a position on the honorary All-Coast Prep league eleven, a post for which he received favorable mention from some of the critics last year. In addition to playing a mean football game, Reister is a southpaw pitcher of ability. He is the first choice moundsman for the Shields Paint company aggregation.

The captain of the side against which the clipping was committed had a choice of two penalties—15 yards from the point of clipping, or 15 yards from the place where the play started. The new penalty is not necessarily more severe, but it is now standard.

"The new rule on blocked kicks is the fairest yet devised. Its first provision is that a punted ball blocked behind the line of scrimmage belongs to whichever side recovers, but counts a down against the kickers if that side recovers. Formerly a blocked kick recovered by the kickers meant first down."

SECOND PLACE LOCAL GOLFERS RACE NOW ONLY BEGIN BATTLE B. B. INTEREST IN CUP EVENT

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—With the two pennant races decided in the major leagues, there remains nothing for the regular distribution but the batting honors and the money prizes that the Senators and the Pirates will produce for the second, third and fourth place teams.

Rogers Hornsby, the flashy St. Louis manager, is sure of winning the National league batting championship and the season's home run honors, and Tris Speaker, the venerable Cleveland manager, is the favorite for the American league hitting honors.

First division places in both leagues seem to be taken. In the National league the Giants have cinched second place, the Reds are almost as sure of third place and the Cardinals are a safe bet for fourth.

The Philadelphia Athletics, who lost the American league pennant by a tragic slump in the last quarter of the race, have second place clinched with a lead of eight games over the Browns. The Browns are holding third place by 2½ games and the Tigers have an advantage for fourth place of 3½ games over the White Sox.

One day later than the National league championship was decided, the Washington Senators won the American league pennant by taking a double header from the Cleveland Indians while the Athletics were losing to the Browns in 11 innings.

There is an unusual diversity of opinion as to the outcome of the world's series which begins October 7 and very little money will be offered until the Washington lineup is definitely known. If the Senators have their full strength to start, it is likely that even money will prevail, although the Senators may be slight favorites on account of their experience.

SEAL OWNERS ASK BIG SUM FOR WANER

Here are the three star meal tickets of the San Francisco Seals. Two of them, Kamm and O'Connell, already have been peddled to the big leagues. What will happen to Waner, who has had a price of $100,000 set on his head?

Bear Hunting In Alaska

(These articles which were written by George Briggs, Santa Ana sportsman and big game writer, appear from day to day on the sport page of The Register. They have to do with Mr. Briggs' recent expedition to Alaska and are published in diary form just as the author wrote them while in the great North country.)

Billy Kamm could field, perhaps better than any other third sacker in the minors when he was sold for $125,000 to Chicago's White Sox. But he couldn't hit.

Jimmy O'Connell could and did hit from the day he broke into professional ball until Judge Landis barred him. He also could run.

But he was not much of an outfielder when John McGraw purchased him.

Paul Waner can hit and run, throw and field, and, in all probability, ranks as the best all-around player in the Pacific Coast league today.

Like Kamm and O'Connell, Waner has developed with the San Francisco Seals. And as he can field a la Kamm, hit a la O'Connell and throw better than either player—he has a stronger arm than any other pastime in the minors—the owners of the Seals put a big price of him.

They are not asking as much for Waner as they received for Kamm: they are asking more than McGraw paid for O'Connell.

Waner's sale price is $100,000. The Seals accepted players as part payment for Kamm and O'Connell. They want cash nothing else for Waner.

They named their price for Waner when Scout Hank Gowdy of New York's Giants, without ever having seen the player, asked them for their terms. And their slogan is:

"Take him at our price or leave him."

You get some idea of just how important Cozy Dolan is to the Giants when you study the standing of Mr. McGraw's champions these days.

Cincinnati baseball fans believe that in view of the present success of the Reds it is pretty certain that Jack Hendricks will be re-engaged to manage the club when his present contract expires at the end of the season.

I took the gun in my left hand and half turned, expecting to see bear anywhere from 75' to 150 yards on the flat when I caught the form of a bear loom through the thick brush 20 feet away.

Now, it's not considered the proper thing for an Alaska brown bear to thus invade your resting place but on she came and a yard more would put her in a small opening through which I could shoot with certainty.

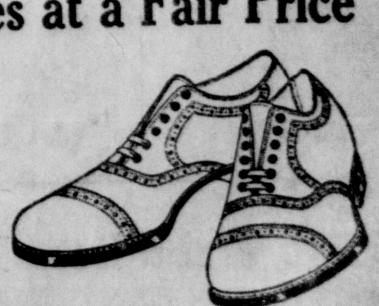

She bulked pretty big.

I followed her with the head and when she reached the opening, for the first time she must have seen me for she stopped and looked. I

Beginning to tune up for the annual Orange County Harbor league baseball race in which both teams have enrolled this winter, the Irvine Beaniemen and the Van Dien-Young company of Santa Ana will collide at Irvine park Sunday afternoon.

"Heinie" Kuykendall, manager of the Van Dien-Youngs, has assembled a formidable looking crew for the winter and believes it will be able to bump off the erstwhile Orange county champions.

DEFENSIVE IS GOOD IN DRILL WITH GROVERS

Squad Lacks Polish But Improves Daily; Dawson Only Man Sure of Berth

Prospects for a winning football team are growing brighter at the Santa Ana high school where Coach "Chuck" Winterburn has begun giving his charges something aside from fundamentals.

Although the squad floundered badly at times and a couple of the backs fumbled inexcusably, Winterburn's outfit showed considerable promise during its scrimage workout with Coach W. W. Wiemann's Garden Grove prep eleven here last night.

It was just an informal drill with Winterburn and Wiemann standing behind their respective teams, pointing out weaknesses and directing their quarterbacks to try certain plays and formations.

Santa Ana, at least, played intelligently. Its defense was good, the lighter Garden Grove eleven finding extreme difficulty in piercing the Poly forward wall. The local team's offensive showed potential power especially when big Ray Dawson, captain, was running the interference. Dawson is quite a ball packer himself and a good fullback at backing his line but his best work probably is done when he's protecting one of his own backs.

Team Lacks Polish

Winterburn still has a tremendous amount of work before he can send any kind of a polished club out on the Poly turf. He will have six veterans on his starting team but the other five men will be

Rhodes Men Find Funds Inadequate

OXFORD, Eng., Sept. 25.—It is estimated that the average cost of an Oxford education is somewhat more than $1500 a year. For Americans, the cost is higher, as they are unable to spend the vacations cheaply at home.

Present costs are nearly double those of pre-war years. When the Rhodes scholarships were instituted, their stipend of $3500 a year was most ample, and some scholars had to save enough from it during their three years of residence to finance a fourth year either in Oxford or abroad. An increase of $250 has been added to the scholarships, but they are still inadequate.

Further increases have been proposed, but have been voted down by the Rhodes trustees on the ground that they would make the position of the Rhodes scholar be-

PURCHASE OF NEW "Y" SITE IS ADVOCATED

DAYTON, O., Sept. 25.—An attempt to fly an airplane continually for 100 hours—more than four days without alighting, will be made Monday at Detroit by two Dayton pilots, it was announced at McCook field here.

The Junker plane to be used by Eddie Stinson, pilot, and Jerry Macchie, relief pilot, will be accompanied by a second plane, which will attempt to serve it through a 50-foot hose while in flight.

Seven contacts will be made to pick up oil, gas and food. The present world record of 45 hours is held by a French aviator.

ANAHEIM, Sept. 25.—That the Y. M. C. A. building on North Philadelphia street which was partly destroyed by fire about four weeks ago, should be temporarily repaired and sold and a new more central location purchased as the site of a new Y. M. C. A. structure was the expressed opinion of representative business men of the city in a meeting held with Secretary John Rudd, yesterday.

Fire insurance on the building damaged by fire will pay for the necessary temporary repairs. Secretary Rudd pointed out. The organization is handicapped at the present time by the out-of-the-way location of the "Y" headquarters.

Repair of the present structure will be ordered as soon as the house committee meets, it is understood. Then as soon as the property can be sold, negotiations for a site, probably in the vicinity of the city park, will be opened.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 25.—Full confessions that they held up the Senator theater here last Sunday night were obtained from W. E. Burke and Joe Long, yesterday. In addition to the local theater robbery, in which the two men obtained approximately $4800, they are suspected of having taken part in several holdups in Los Angeles.

Men of Portugal are more particular about the appearance of their hair than the women, according to recent figures that show the male is buying more brilliantine than the female.

PLACENTIA, Sept. 25.—Mr. and Mrs. William J. Travers, of Kraemer Avenue, are spending four days this week at Catalina Island. They will return Monday morning.

Mrs. Mary Sumwalt, trained nurse, is spending some time with Mrs. Charles E. Fuller.

Miss Frances Schallis has gone to Berkeley to take up her studies at the University of California.

Mr. and Mrs. John Evans' guests, Mrs. J. Laing, of St. Joseph, Mo., and Mrs. Ed. Minister, of Kansas City, both sisters, of Mr. Evans, have returned to their homes after a month's visit here.

G. R. Moss, father of Mrs. C. L. Green, returned this week from spending the summer months with his daughter and other relatives in Kansas.

Mrs. Adelia Howerton, of El Monte, was looking after business interests, and visiting friends here on Tuesday and Wednesday.

Miss Melba Ferguson, nurse in training at Long Beach, and her brother, James Ferguson, were recent guests of their grandmother, Mrs. James Brunson.

Mrs. M. Hammer, of Whittier, was an all day visitor at the G. I. Walker home on Monday.

W. E. Graham was in Los Angeles on Monday attending a convention of business men.

A greasing rack with concrete pit is being installed at the E. A. Long service station.

Mrs. Lella Chochran is in Santa Paula recovering from an illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Jerome, of Belvedere Gardens, were guests of Mr. Jerome's brother, Howard, and family the first of the week.

Mrs. Barbara Carow, of Fullerton, spent some time with her sister, Mrs. James Cohoe, this week.

Mrs. Elmer Hochstein and son, Leon, spent two days this week with friends in Los Angeles.

Charles J. Wilson, caretaker of the Calvary church, is in Long Beach, arranging the erection of a tent at Virginia City where William Pietch, of Santa Ana, will hold evangelistic service.

Miss Mildred Hesler, of Hollywood, has returned home after spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Ira MacNunn.

Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Chormicle are moving into their newly completed house on Primrose avenue.

A branch Mission of the Calvary church is being opened on West Santa Fe street, with Don Milligan in charge. A special Spanish worker, Leland Green, will assist in the meetings which will be held on Saturday evenings.

Don't forget the dance Friday and Saturday, American Legion Hall, Friday and Saturday nights.

AIR MAIL CONCERN WILL INCORPORATE

PORLTAND, Ore., Sept. 25.—Articles of incorporation for a company, capitalized at $150,000, to operate air mail service between Seattle, Portland, San Francisco and San Diego, have been filed at Salem by members of the Oregon Motor Stage association.

The company plans to finance the operation of air mail carriers under the tender made the post office department last week by V. C. Gorst, of North Bend, Ore. The capital stock is to be held exclusively by Motor stage operators of Oregon, Washington and California.

Although the postoffice department has made no award on the air mail contract, Gorst is confident his bid will be acceptable, because it was the only one of three proposals submitted for the coastwise air line that conformed with specifications.

Talbert

TALBERT, Sept. 25.—J. G. Parsons, local merchant had a water well put down on his property here this week. The well is for domestic use and is 100 feet in depth. M. Fuquah, of Cypress, bored the well.

Mrs. Oscar Gibson is spending a week in San Bernardino visiting her mother, Mrs. Jackson. Rev. Gibson has motored up to bring his wife home.

The beet harvest is being rushed this week as only a few more days remain before the sugar factories expect to close the season's run. Two dumps, the Planta dump east of town and the Bushard dump south of here, are in use.

The S. E. Talbert store was painted on the interior this week. S. Rush was the painter.

Clinton Cox, 11-year-old son of Walter Cox, who resides on the Dr. Castle ranch, suffered a broken thigh when thrown from a race horse which he was riding about the yard at his home. When the horse turned suddenly, throwing the boy, his foot became tangled in the bridle and he was dragged for some distance. The limb was set the office of a Santa Ana physician and the lad was brought to his home. He is getting along fine.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lacabanne attended the Orange county fair in Santa Ana Wednesday.

Miss Dedah Gilbert left Monday for Pasadena, where she has entered on her second year at a Pasadena college.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pettitt, Mrs. Ethel Perrine and the latter's son, Junior, of Hollywood, were weekend visitors at the S. E. Talbert home.

Emile Levrain is the owner of a new enclosed car.

Louis Bushard has purchased a later model machine.

Hugo Lamb, local rancher, is the possessor of a brand new automobile.

Henry Talbert, who for some time has been in the vicinity of San Francisco, has returned and is once more connected with local road work. Talbert has located in Santa Ana.

The R. L. Callens thresher which has been employed in the Greenville section since the opening of the bean harvest, pulled into the Robert Gisler ranch Tuesday evening to thresh 100 acres of Gisler's beans. Some of Gisler's crop is yet too green to be harvested.

S. E. Talbert, local contractor, began grading Wednesday on the four mile intersection through Stanton. This road is to be paved and will join the Garden Grove and Anaheim-Artesia boulevards.

Miss Alpha Gilbert has been ill with influenza this week and her small sister, Florine, who has been ill for the past three weeks, has not yet fully recovered from an attack of the same disease.

The majority of the local bean crops have been cut and threshing is going on as rapidly as possible. So far, the crops are not turning out as good as last year. The general average for this season is 15 sacks to the acre.

The picking of the red chilis has begun in local fields, the season for the greens having about terminated. Many ranchers are now sun-drying a part of their crops and are also seeing to their next season's seed.

Mrs. Alex. Herman and two small daughters, Dorothy and Esther, were visitors Tuesday at the H. O. Harper home. Miss Josephine Herman was an overnight guest.

Henry Lacabanne has leased his 30-acre home ranch west of town to Harry Fulton, reserving only the grounds immediately about the house and the orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Worthy and family, who have been staying temporarily at the Jack Worthy home, moved this week to Santa Ana Gardens.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wells and family, of Lomita, visited Sunday at the home of Mr. Wells' sister, Mrs. Clyde Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Peppert and baby are enroute to Iowa, having left for the east suddenly upon the receipt of word of the dangerous illness of Mrs. Peppert's mother, Mrs. Sandy. The family are driving through and will meet there with other relatives from Garden Grove, who are making the trip by train. Mrs. Sandy has been ill ever since leaving here for her old home last spring. Harry Peppert, who has been living in Talbert, has moved to the Tarada place for the period of his brother's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gisler visited a couple of days in Hollywood this week and attended a social function while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harper spent Sunday to Santa Ana with Mrs. Harper's mother, Mrs. Lena Patterson. Upon their return, they brought home their small son, Jack, who had spent the weekend with his grandmother.

Mrs. Mary V. Bushard, of Los Angeles, visited over Tuesday and Wednesday at the home of her two sons, George and Will Bushard.

Mr. and Mrs. John Shutt and Miss Flossie Draper of this place spent Sunday in company with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Draper and daughter, Patricia, of Anaheim, at Long Beach, where they were entertained at the home of their cousin, Charles Draper.

POMP TO MARK NAVY CHANGES AT SAN PEDRO

SAN PEDRO, Sept. 25.—Attended by the usual pomp and ceremony of the navy, Adm. S. S. Robison will assume his duties as commander-in-chief of the U. S. fleet here, October 4.

Orders from Adm. Robert E. Coontz, at present in charge of the fleet, have been received here to this effect, and preparations have been started for a celebration to accompany the change.

Admiral Coontz will assume command of the fifth naval district, with headquarters at Hampton Roads.

On October 9, Admiral Robison's flag will be lowered from the U. S. S. California, flagship of the battle fleet, and Vice Adm. Henry A. Wiley will succeed him. Vice Admiral Wiley will be succeeded by Vice Adm. Richard H. Jackson, at present with the general board, in Washington, D. C.

Another change will be made on the same day when Rear Adm. William D. MacDougal is relieved of command of battleship division No. 4 by Rear Adm. Louis R. De Steiguer, now commanding the first naval district.

The U. S. S. Seattle, flagship of the fleet, will arrive here September 29.

Our Neighbors

ONTARIO—Giving interested persons of Pomona valley an opportunity to apply for work, and manifesting an improvement in general business conditions here, is the announcement that the personnel of the Hotpoint factory here is to be greatly increased in size, starting immediately. E. H. Richardson, founder of the institution, said today that the change is being made in order to improve the efficiency of the factory now that the growing demand for Hotpoint products necessitates an enlargement in the manufacturing force.

SAN BERNARDINO—The board of supervisors, "by conservative appropriations," will aid the operation of desert schools, particularly in districts where the revenue from taxation is insufficient to finance the schools, it was determined yesterday at the board's weekly conference. Supervisor G. E. Crain, representing the desert district, and the board that school trustees of Needles, Barstow and Victorville had requested financial aid to operate the schools for the year. The assessed valuation of non-operative property on the desert is not high enough to derive revenues to finance the schools. In Needles, the supervisor explained, there is $900,000 assessed valuation of operative property—railway property in this instance—from which the county and district receives no taxes. The increase in population, with the resultant gain in the number of students, has brought an increase in school expenses, with a slight, if any, gain in tax revenues.

PASADENA—School for probationary patrolmen of the Pasadena police department will begin October 1. All of the new men who have recently been added to the force will be required to take the examinations, which will be given during the 10 weeks' term. Sergt. Morris F. Judkins will be principal, and Superintendent Carl Grishbach of the bureau of identification, will be vice-principal of the school. D. R. Hamilton, one of the newly appointed officers, will be on the "faculty." He occupies the "chair of jiu jitsu" and will instruct his fellow officers in the art of Japanese wrestling. Chief of Police Charles H. Kelley is considering the establishment of a course in memory tests with David M. Roth, of Los Angeles, as instructor.

COLTON—Installation may be made soon of a time switch which automatically will shut off the city lights. This was revealed when Trustee E. D. McKinney introduced a resolution at a recent board meeting instructing City Engineer G. A. Hutchinson and City Electrician Charles Felger to determine the cost of the proper equipment for the handling of automatic light control. A report will be made at the next session of the trustees. It is proposed to equip the city substation with time clock switches which will shut off part of the lights on the boulevard system at an early hour of the morning and cut off the balance of the city lights at daybreak.

LONG BEACH—Work on the new 15-story Breakers hotel, facing Ocean boulevard and the city park between Locust avenue and Collins way, will start as soon as ground can be cleared, it was announced yesterday by the office of William G. Head, contractor. The building will be finished by June 1, under the terms of the contract. The hotel will have 330 rooms in the first unit, to be erected immediately to the full height of the building.

SAN DIEGO—With a view to developing the waters of the Tijuana river at some future time, the city council yesterday instructed Mayor Bacon to confer with the state department at Washington relative to a treaty with Mexico that will give the city undisputed claim to the Marron reservoir and dam site and the waters passing that site. This action by the council followed the presentation by the city manager of a survey of the Marron reservoir, which was adopted by the council as a "municipal reservoir."

Orders from Adm. Robert E. Coontz, at present in charge of the fleet, have been received here to this effect, and preparations have been started for a celebration to accompany the change.

Admiral Coontz will assume command of the fifth naval district, with headquarters at Hampton Roads.

On October 9, Admiral Robison's flag will be lowered from the U. S. S. California, flagship of the battle fleet, and Vice Adm. Henry A. Wiley will succeed him. Vice Admiral Wiley will be succeeded by Vice Adm. Richard H. Jackson, at present with the general board, in Washington, D. C.

Another change will be made on the same day when Rear Adm. William D. MacDougal is relieved of command of battleship division No. 4 by Rear Adm. Louis R. De Steiguer, now commanding the first naval district.

The U. S. S. Seattle, flagship of the fleet, will arrive here September 29.

"KERNELS" BY THE COLONEL

Santa Ana is a city of campaigns. Money for this, new members for that and so on. Why not call for 20,000 volunteers equipped with candles to stand on Fourth street between Main and Sycamore streets, 100 at a time, for 20 minutes each night, just to show tourists that we really have a street there?

Seems like this would do more good than if the whole town parked in front of the post office.

Seeing is believing and if we depend on tourists to see our best street after dark, when there are only five lights up and down the entire block, we might as well believe we will see the day when the slot machines are run out of town.

And a block away from Fourth is another business street and there is not a single light on it, but that's another story.

It has been suggested that the next time California wants to construct another relief map of the state, such as the one that hangs in the Ferry building, San Francisco, that First street between Bush and the Santa Fe tracks be labelled "The Rocky Mountains."

Motor cops say they never keep a man on duty on this street for speeders because they believe too much in the intelligence of the average driver. "A speeder on First street is not a case for us, he's a case for the coroner," they say.

Police were called to a rooming house on Fourth street yesterday to make a girl stop flirting with a doctor across the street, according to a police report. The girl was said to have been using a mirror to throw rays from the sun into the doctor's office.

And to think, right after the Y. M. C. A. announced that a $2.50 course in "matrimony and preparedness for married life" would start here next week, for young men.

Should make a good tip for the Y. W. C. A.

"Dear Colonel: As people are still parking in front of the post office, maybe it is possible that there are some who do not read your column. Can you suggest a remedy? P. N. T."

Dear Pint: You are probably right, but on account of limited space we haven't room for pictures. For those who can not read, the thought will be conveyed to them through the courtesy of the city engineer who will draw maps, on request.

Incidentally a cop was stationed at the post office for several days, but no arrests were made, so the cop has been taken away, to a more interesting beat. Probably he has returned to Fourth and Main streets.

WHAT AMERICA NEEDS MOST (Contributed)
"A free parachute with each pair of balloon trousers."

"Franklin Grouard, chairman of the dance committee of Santa Ana Post, No. 131, American Legion, announced today that the management had procured the services of Hanny Howling, recently of Honolulu, who will conduct free "Charleston" classes at the Legion Hall." —From Register. Hanny should be a Howling success.

Except that Hanny happens to be Danny, and his last name is Dowling. His success should be just as great, however.

Herman Zabel, finger print expert, was taking the picture of a new prisoner at the county jail. The prisoner was black. "Have you any aliases?" asked Zabel. "Yes, Sar, I is. Got one or two," the nigger answered. "Well, what are they?" Zabel barked.

"Well sar, one is Asthma and the other is Bronchitis."

NUT-Y-GRAMS
"Mother, I would have been home sooner tonight, but I got lost on that dark street downtown, the one the ten cent store's on, you know."

Caillaux Visits Fortune Teller

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—A gloomy picture of debt funding deliberations between representatives of the United States and France was painted yesterday for Joseph Caillaux, head of the French mission, by Miss Belle Bard, director of the Academy of Astrology of New York, at a private seance here. Miss Bard informed Caillaux at the French embassy that the negotiations would be "anything but harmonious," and sharp controversies would flare up at frequent intervals.

"Avoid dotted lines," she warned.

"She is a lovely woman," said Caillaux, after the interview, which he personally requested by radio from mid-ocean.

"What she told me was amusing."

Beyond this, he refused to go on.

NEWS from ORANGE COUNTY

NEWPORT GETS DEED FOR P. E. RIGHT-OF-WAY

NEWPORT BEACH, Sept. 25.—After many months of delay, the last obstacle was cleared away today for the opening of Central avenue from Balboa to the Peninsula, following receipt of the deed to the P. E. right-of-way from the New York office of the company.

The board of trustees immediately made arrangements with the Orange County Title and Trust company, of Santa Ana, to transfer a sum totaling $53,480 in exchange for the purchase, which comprises a strip from B to M street, a distance of 11 blocks. This means that steps will be taken at once by the board to pave the street, thus giving the public a navigable outlet to that section.

Bonds were voted some months ago to purchase the right-of-way, but it was necessary to wait for the action of the company in supplying the deed to the city before paving could start. City Engineer Paul E. Kressley, whose insistence was mainly responsible for hurried up the deed, stated today that his office would prepare plans at once for the improvement.

Entrance to the Peninsula tract and to hundreds of homes along the bay shore has been hindered by the narrow road and the piles of dirt along that portion of Central avenue. The improvement will open one of the finest residential sections in the entire beach district. Already plans are under way for the development of a high class subdivision by a Los Angeles millionaire, who will establish a colony of wealthy people in a circular section of the bay front, it is said.

With the opening of Central avenue to the point, a paved highway will traverse the entire length of the city, a distance of more than six miles.

La Habra

LA HABRA, Sept. 25.—La Habra will be represented at the opening of American way and the Ninth street bridge in Los Angeles, Saturday by a large delegation from the local chamber of commerce, the Kiwanis club and other civic organizations. It is hoped that traffic, which has been heavy on Whittier boulevard for many years will be greatly relieved by this new road. Work, it is hoped, will be completed on the strip from the Orange county line to the Telegraph road by Saturday. Otherwise, a short detour to the west will have to be made.

The La Habra Walnut Growers' association opened its packing house today. Nuts have fallen earlier this season than usual. Many orchards put in pickers the first of the week. It is estimated that the output will be 20 per cent greater than last year. A total of 190 tons is expected.

After a stern chase, two alleged devotees of John Barrycorn were caught Saturday by Officers Martin and Bennett. They were released on 150 bail to appear in Justice Hart's court on September 28.

They gave their names as Jack O'Mally and Tom Davis, of Los Angeles.

The workers' council of the M. E. church held its annual election of officers this week. Those chosen to guide the helm of affairs for the coming year are: Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. I. N. Nicklin; assistant superintendent, R. N. Hodson; treasurer, Miss Flora Leulum; secretary, Mrs. Edgar Leulum; adult department, M. J. Pickering; senior department, James Balcom; intermediate department, Mrs. E. E. Prond; junior department, Mrs. L. H. Tanquary; primary department, Mrs. C. L. Strong; beginners' department, Mrs. Edgar Leutwiler. At the business meeting following, plans were made for rally day.

Twins were born Tuesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Orohood. The babies have been named

Police Chief Leaves for State Confab

FULLERTON, Sept. 25.—To attend the fifth annual convention of the California State Peace Officers' association, Chief of Police O. W. Wilson left today for Stockton. The conference will be held Monday and Tuesday next. Roy Green will be acting chief during Wilson's absence.

Well known speakers on the program will include August Vollmer, chief of police of Berkeley, under whom the local man has his training; William I. Traeger, sheriff of Los Angeles county; William Marsh, superintendent of the division of motor vehicles of the state; Chief D. J. O'Brien, of San Francisco, and Chief R. Lee Heath, of Los Angeles.

FIRE DAMAGES STRUCTURE AT NEWPORT BEACH

NEWPORT BEACH, Sept. 25.—Fire, which started from the sparks of a gas engine, caused damage estimated at $5000 to the Syndicate Wharf building, located at the foot of 30th place on the bay, early this morning.

The structure was held under lease by J. Ikeyama, a Japanese, who operated fish business there. Several fishing nets were destroyed by the flames.

The fire was discovered by Glenn Helms, garageman. The building was erected five or six years ago to aid in bringing business to Newport harbor.

The loss is partially covered by insurance.

The music section of the Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Roy Baker Monday evening. Reorganization and securing a director was the most important business of the section. Dr. Edna Burgeson, Mrs. J. W. Camp and Mrs. C. Marsh were appointed to secure a director. A membership drive will be conducted and the section expects to have as good or better chorus for the coming year as the one last year.

Celebrating her own natal day anniversary with that of her brother and friend, Miss Mabel Stoop entertained with a delightful dinner party Sunday. The table was centered with a hand-made basket of yellow and white asters. The table favors and the place cards were of the same dainty shades. The honorees were the hostess, her brother, David L. Stoop, and Ed Wilkinson, of Los Angeles. Other guests were her father, Samuel Stoop, and a friend, Miss Bessie Winnie. After dinner, the party motored to Riverside and enjoyed the organ concert at the Mission Inn.

Three score and ten was the number of years celebrated by Paul Canfield when Mrs. Canfield and their daughter, Fern, entertained in his honor Monday evening. A number of neighbors and friends were bidden in and an evening of music and games enjoyed. Miss Fern is an accomplished violinist. Refreshments of ice cream and a birthday cake were served.

Complimenting their niece, Miss Evelyn Robinson, on the eve of her departure for Philadelphia to enter Bryn Mawr college, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Varney entertained with a family dinner last week. Miss Robinson was the winner of scholarship prize given last year by the Whittier college. She will major in art and literature. Covers were placed a the prettily decorated table for her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Robinson, James V. Robinson, and the Misses Evelyn and Eleanor Robinson and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Varney. The parents of Miss Robinson are permanent residents of the valley.

Coming as a complete surprise to her many friends, the announcement of the marriage of Miss Constance Haas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Haas Massey of East First street, was received here this week. The wedding, which was a very quiet one, took place at Riverside, September 11. The groom is Oral Herman, a well known La Habra resident.

E. C. Hilton, injured about 10 days ago has been brought to his home here from the Seaside hospital, Long Beach, where he was taken after being hurt. He is on the road to recovery.

Shouts of excited children calling to one another to come and see caused the older folk to cautiously cast an eye outside to see what was going on early this morning. A large gray balloon, decked in flags, on its way to the fair grounds in Santa Ana, proved to be the attraction.

RAYMOND NACE NAMED SENIOR CLASS LEADER

FULLERTON, Sept. 25.—Classes of the Fullerton union high school held their first meetings yesterday and elected officers. The seniors chose Raymond Nace for president; John Dunn, vice president; Nancy Hezmalhalch, secretary; Gerald Boege, treasurer; Inez Young, song leader, and Phillip Allen, yell leader.

Floyd Hatfield is the junior president; Ilo Crowe, vice president; Kenneth Vaughn, secretary; Ned Crooke, treasurer. Carl Gibson was chosen for yell leader and Miss Vera Studebaker yell leader for girls.

The Hezmalhalch twins, sons of the city clerk, were honored by the sophomore class. Robert was elected president and Charles vice president. Okale Adams is secretary and Miss Vera Stull treasurer. Miss Morcelline Arroves was elected song leader and Majorie Allen class reporter. Dean Hardison and Dean Burney tied for the office of yell leader, and the choice will be made at the next class meeting.

Orville Heteborn was elected president by the freshman class which chose Velva Sullivan as their vice president. Miss Shirley Shipe is both secretary and treasurer. Lolah Meeker is song leader. Charles Dunn will assist her.

NEWPORT BEACH, Sept. 25.—Nominees for student body officers were made yesterday when students of the Fullerton union high school held their weekly assembly. James Balcom, who was made president before the close of last term, presided.

The election will be held next Tuesday. Nominees are: Don Batchman, Ray Hancock and Betty Berkley, for vice president; Alan Rains, Alex Sturgis and Ralph Stein, for treasurer; Gertrude Wents and Elizabeth Schweinfest, for forensic manager; Francis Russell and Louis Velasco, for men's athletic manager; Irma Young, Katherine Goodwin and Beatrice Loring, for women's athletic manager; Anita Stone, Paul Walters and Emmett Pike, for treasurer; Henry Hodges, Hansel Carter, Ralph Stein, Emmett Pike, Anita Stone, Lewis Howard, Winnie Hardy, Frances Stephens and Fay Ballou, for commission members; Cliff Howell and Louis Velasco, for yell leaders; Winnie Hardy and Laura Hancock for song leaders.

Burial services for Miss Dorothy Wilburn, of Long Beach, were attended by a number of Westminster people among them being Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Byram, Mrs. F. J. Grandy, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McCoy and Miss Jessie McCoy.

The Rev. W. T. Wardle, of Los Angeles, former minister here of the Presbyterian church, officiated.

The service was at the Comer Undertaking parlor in Long Beach.

The church here sent a floral offering. Miss Wilburn at the time of her death was a nurse at the Seaside hospital. When her fellow workers, 12 nurses, in uniform, took their seats with the other mourners, there was one vacant chair in their midst. "Abide With Me," and "Some Day the Silver Cord Will Break," were sung during the service. Miss Wilburn was well known here, having resided with her mother, Mrs. Harriet Wilburn, when she was principal of the Westminster Grammar school for two years, some time ago. Many Westminster girls were her classmates when she graduated from the Huntington Beach high school.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hill and family, of Huntington Beach, were dinner guests at the E. M. Fox home recently.

The Oceanview school observed fair day Wednesday and many of the pupils took advantage of the holiday to attend the fair in Santa Ana.

Leaders of the Wintersburg Queen Esther circle announced that the meetings will be resumed beginning October 1. Miss Julene Blaylock, president of the circle, and other officers are arranging for a business meeting, at which time the schedule for the coming year's work will be arranged.

Local members who have been absent during the vacation period are now at home and the members are eager to resume their regular meetings. Only a few social affairs have brought the members together since June.

Mrs. Ethel Sebastian and mother, Mrs. George Gothard, motored to Colton Wednesday, taking Mrs. Jack Powell and small son to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Roberson spent two days in Santa Ana as visitors in the homes of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Moore and Miss Irma De Barr. Mrs. Moore returned with Mrs. Roberson and remained for several days at her home.

Mr. Moore joined the party and was accorded a birthday dinner at his natal date falling upon that day.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Barry and family, and Mrs. Barry's mother, Mrs. Margaret Knighten, who for several days was their house guest, motored to Los Angeles Wednesday, to attend the Orange county fair Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gardner motored to Pomona Wednesday to attend the Los Angeles County fair.

J. M. L. Holt of Tustin, was a dinner guest Wednesday at the home of his sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George Harding.

The local group of bean ranchers, which includes Earl Gardner, Stirling Price, Frank Walker and George Harding has finished the threshing. The work was done jointly, each furnishing labor teams and tractors as needed. The crops ran from 15 to 20 sacks to the acre, making an average of about 17 sacks to the acre. Frank Walker's beans ran about 20 sacks to the acre, Gas Ward is having his crop of beans threshed this week by the Hugo Lamb thresher.

Mrs. A. H. Moore returned

Tuesday evening from Los Angeles, where she visited her daughter and attended the annual conference of the Methodist church.

Wilbur Friend and family moved this week from the Bennett house in the Blaylock tract to

Anaheim Elks Planning Show Tuesday

ANAHEIM, Sept. 25.—Anaheim Elks are sponsoring, next Tuesday night, in the local clubrooms, a vaudeville show similar to the one which won instant success here several months ago, according to announcement of Harry L. Horn, chairman of the show committee.

The show will be presented in the spacious dining room of the club and dancing will follow the performance. Six high class acts of vaudeville have been secured for the event and a record crowd is anticipated.

EVENING SALUTATION

It takes a big man to stand extravagant praise; to be a modest winner; to live up to his son's estimate; to praise a competitor's goods; to be honest without being watched; to admit that he was in the wrong; to smile at an insult.—Roy Smith.

"GOOD IN EVERYTHING"

"And this our life, exempt from public haunt, Finds tongues in trees, books in running brooks, Sermons in stones, and good in everything."

The foregoing quotation, from Shakespeare's "As You Like It," came vividly to mind yesterday at the Kiwanis Club luncheon, when Jack Hayden, speaking on business ethics, gave a very simple but very striking and forceful illustration.

Mr. Hayden has recently been on a hunting trip in the mountains. He said that when his car was rolling along on a straight wide paved highway, he and his friends enjoyed visiting with each other and had a fine time talking and laughing, and to some extent enjoying the scenery by the wayside; but as soon as they got into the mountains, on narrow roads of constant curves and many sharp turns, all talking and visiting and viewing of scenery was abandoned. Everybody's mind was on careful driving, and especially on what was just around the curve or the corner, and what the other fellow would do.

"A striking parallel to this," said Mr. Hayden, "is found in business life. As long as a business man follows a straight road, he has nothing to fear. He need not concern himself seriously about what his competitor is doing or what he may do. All he has to do is to keep on the straight road, ethically speaking. But as soon as he begins to travel a crooked road, ethically speaking, look out! Because he himself is traveling a crooked road, he naturally thinks his competitor is doing the same thing, and is constantly fearing what the other fellow will do to him and scheming as to what he will do to the other fellow."

Thus Mr. Hayden found a powerful sermon on business economics and business ethics in the highway and the mountain road, and no doubt he found many other sermons and tongues and books in the trees and running brooks of the mountains in which he spent his vacation. Certainly it is to be hoped and believed that he found "good in everything."

"WHAT PRICE GLORY"

California furnished four per cent of the fighting men of the World war, according to Commander Wilbur Getty, of Santa Ana Post No. 131 American Legion.

Did you sense the full meaning and significance of that simple statement, when you read it in The Register Wednesday evening? Perhaps not, because Commander Getty did not mention the fact that California's population is only three per cent of the nation's population.

Now you get it. Three per cent of the population furnished four per cent of the soldiers. That is, California furnished thirty-three and one-third per cent (one-third) more than her quota of soldiers. Which means that a large percentage of Californians volunteered and were accepted, that fewer Californians evaded the draft, that fewer Californians were rejected because of physical or mental unfitness.

And that means that the health, intelligence and patriotism of Californians are above the average.

But that isn't all. Commander Getty said also that twenty per cent of the nation's disabled service men are now living in California.

Which means that these men and their Uncle Sam believe that they have a better chance to get well here than anywhere else.

And it means also that, by reason of her salubrious climate, California has had imposed upon her a high and holy duty, and has had conferred upon her a glorious opportunity for patriotic and humanitarian service.

OUR NIGHT SCHOOL

Enrollment for the night school to be conducted by the Santa Ana high school, commencing next Monday, proves the demand for the school. A glance through the subjects offered indicates the variety of classes available. That and a review of the plans for the school and an inquiry into the qualifications of the instructors satisfies one that the night school is no make-shift institution. Principal Hammond has planned the school with a view to making it of real service to the community.

A few years ago, a night school was conducted at the high school. It proved popular. However, conditions arose which made it advisable to close the school. It is opening now with every reason to believe that it will prove successful and permanent.

Night schools in general have proved their usefulness. To be sure, there are night schools that have failed to meet the needs of their communities. No such failure, however, is likely in Santa Ana.

FILTH IN VAUDEVILLE

If any person in the presence of your family anywhere else than at the theater attempted a vulgarity such as we frequently have thrown at us from vaudeville stages, you would use your fist on the offender's chin; you would throw him into the gutter, where he belongs.

We can't see why any theater manager will allow filth and dirt to be smeared at his patrons.

In the past five or six years, the films have been subjected to a good deal of severe criticism. It is our opinion that the films are pure white compared to the smut and vulgarities of vaudeville.

To be sure, all vaudeville acts are not open to adverse criticism. But it takes just one foul remark or vulgar action by one dirty-minded vaudeville actor to put the ordinary decent-minded citizen off vaudeville.

Why not have a notice like this posted in every theater:

"This theater believes in decency. Have all the fun you want, but don't get filthy. Every person who goes on the stage of this theater, take notice that the first smutty or dirty joke or stunt you pull means that you will be thrown into the alley and you are not to come back to this theater."

Vaudeville performers would get it the first time they read it. It wouldn't take a week for any theater management to clean his house.

And the clean house would be the full house.

The excuse made by show people that "the public demands that kind of stuff" won't bear inspection. Read this, under the heading "Circus Is Kept Clean of Off-Color Scenes," from the San Bernardino Sun: "Year after year both the stage and the screen have become more prone to cater to what is called 'sex stuff,' and the cry is that it is necessary, that the people demand it."

"Year after year Ringling Brothers circus has toured the nation, each year playing to more people, and there is not a hint of anything suggestive in the whole program. About 25,000 people saw the circus in San Bernardino and they liked it. It is better than ever was the frequent declaration, yet actually it was no better than two or four or six years ago. But it was refreshing, and was it so refreshing because it was so clean?"

"And we wonder why it used to be that mention of a circus caused some people to raise their hands in horror."

"Theory that the plane upon which the American people have placed their amusements has lowered is not borne out by the character of the circus and the story that its attendance figures tell."

Travelers now go down from Jerusalem to Jericho in automobiles along a motor route opened by Britain. And it is not unlikely that they occasionally need the services of a Good Samaritan just as motorists do in other parts of the world.

For Safety Against Accidents

Long Beach Press-Telegram
A world war is brewing—but not one to startle or appal mankind. It is a war against accidents on the streets, at home and in workshops and places of daily activity. A Safety Congress meeting will be held in Cleveland, Ohio, soon. Thirty nations will be presented at this meeting.

Here is a cause that should enlist the deep interest of each and every American. Much horror is felt and expressed about the terrors of warfare. And yet, right here at home, there is a menace, day in and day out, year in and year out, that takes more lives, in the long run, than war has taken from the manhood of this country. The United States stands indicted before the world as being the most careless of the lives of its citizens. This country has a deplorably high rate of deaths from accident—76.3 fatalities for every 100,000 of population. The record for England and Wales is only 33.6 for every 100,000 inhabitants. Denmark has the low record of twenty fatalities for each 100,000 population.

America is killing and maiming its people at a frightful rate, in accidents that multiply year after year. Traffic deaths alone run into many thousands annually. Industrial accidents cause many fatalities. And fatal mishaps of divers kinds swell the gruesome record. More persons die in accidents in this country annually, and more are injured, than are killed or wounded in a great battle. The slaughter entailed upon this country is more frightful than the slaughter of warfare. Very much in order is it to strive to curtail these frightful losses.

Fewer Clothes for Men?

Redlands Facts
Scientists of the University of Chicago, have, after exhaustive tests, ascertained that sun bathing produces markedly beneficial effects upon the blood stream flowing through the human body and that exposure to the rays of the sun is conducive to better health.

There is one way we can all get nearer to these health giving sun rays and that is by wearing fewer clothes. This sage observation really doesn't need to apply to the modern woman for she already has discovered that she is more comfortable with fewer clothes and has discarded all that the law and the ordinary tenets of decency will allow.

With men, however, it is different. Because of long social usage the average man is burdened with far too many clothes. During the hottest weather many men will wear, in addition to the normal amount of underclothing, a vest and a coat of heavy, dark material, and are thoroughly uncomfortable. Even in the winter time there is little excuse for the way in which the most healthy men bundle up in ulsters and overcoats and mufflers and whatnot.

Men are wearing too many clothes and are so cowardly that they will not break away from social usage enough to be comfortable and healthy.

Wear fewer clothes and let the sunlight in and physically and mentally you will be better off.

INABILITY TO SLEEP IS WARNING TO CALL DOCTOR

A not unusual danger signal of a diseased or deranged condition of the physical or mental system is insomnia or an inability to sleep.

The healthy man who is tired drops off to sleep almost immediately. The man who is fatigued frequently finds himself unable to sleep.

If it happens occasionally that you are unable to sleep you may attribute the cause probably to indigestion, overeating or the failure of the intestinal tract to function properly. Such temporary disturbances of functions frequently results in sleeplessness.

If, however, you suffer from periodic intervals of insomnia you may be reasonably certain something is wrong; it may not be more than improper food, lack of exercise, or too much sedentary work, but insomnia is a warning that you are not well. Your trouble, however, may be entirely physical.

Periodic inability to sleep, you would think, would send a man to a physician at once, no matter how unacquainted with rules of health that man be. Yet physicians will tell you that the majority of people fail to heed this first danger signal of periodic insomnia. They consider that periodic insomnia indicates merely a temporary disturbance of bodily functions and they delay until the condition producing the insomnia becomes chronic.

In combating insomnia it is important to know first of all that primarily insomnia is merely a symptom, often a fear. Insomnia is not a disease, but its cause should be searched for immediately. When insomnia becomes a continuous condition it is common for the sufferer to contribute to the insomnia by living constantly in a state of fear that he will be unable to sleep.

As a matter of fact, the first step in the treatment of a person suffering from insomnia is to rid that individual's mind of the fear of insomnia, to attempt to make him forget his loss of sleep and consequently forget his worry.

The habitual sufferer from insomnia who attempts to produce sleep by some old and common method as counting sheep jumping over a fence or by the repetition of some quotation or simple rhyme frequently finds that his efforts are futile.

Fresh air, exercise, and concentration of the mind during the day upon some constructive activity rather than upon how you are going to sleep at night will help overcome sleeplessness. Care of the diet is also important.

A ten-minute bath in a temperature of about 96 degrees Fahrenheit, followed by a brisk rubbing, is recommended as a good sleep producer. You should see to it that your bathroom is warmed to about 75 degrees. The warm bath draws the blood to the surface of the body and to the extremities and there is consequently a lessened flow to the brain.

A hot foot bath, also, may be taken and may prove restive and helpful in producing sleep. Some have found the use of a hot-water bag placed at the feet also helpful.

Make Justice Blind and Even - Handed

Pasadena Star-News

On the stage and in films frequently the injustice of courts of justice and their processes toward persons innocently accused is made the source of martyrdom to the hero or the heroine of the production. Some of these situations are melodramatic and perhaps never had counterpart in real life. But others undoubtedly are drawn from real circumstances. "Tis pity 'tis true" that even-handed justice is not always meted out to persons accused of crimes or serious offenses. It is pity not only because of the injustice that is done to the victim of these circumstances, but also because of the bad impression that gains currency among the people, causing bitterness toward courts and legal processes, and distrust of them. There is too much of this in this country. Much of it is groundless and unfair. But the few isolated cases of miscarriage of justice serve to heighten this feeling and to create the conviction that the machinery of justice is too often the machinery of injustice.

It is of the greatest importance that the courts and the processes of enforcing laws should have the confidence and respect of the masses of the people. This confidence and respect can be had only by deserving. In no case and in no circumstances should prosecution in criminal courts be such that the innocent person, no matter how poor, humble or friendless, would be jeopardized merely that the prosecuting official may make a good record or that the arresting officers may be vindicated. Justice should be blind to distinctions, and even-handed.

Men are wearing too many clothes and are so cowardly that they will not break away from social usage enough to be comfortable and healthy. Wear fewer clothes and let the sunlight in and physically and mentally you will be better off.

A straw vote on woman's suffrage, taken last night at the Bell theater, showed 160 persons to be for the proposition and 189 to be against it.

A gain in enrollment of almost 200 pupils was shown in registration when public schools reopened here today. The total enrollment was 1893 against 1707 on the first day last year.

Officers of the Orange and Santa Ana chapters of the American Woman's League held a picnic at Birch Park yesterday.

For murder's sake," said Mosey Mud Turtle, "for that is who the rock was," why don't you watch me?"

"Well, I'll do it," said Mosey. "I'll do what you ask me, Cutie. But it's a risky business."

"Oh, not so very," said Cutie mysteriously. "But thank you a lot. And now I'll make some other visits."

He said good-morning and went off to the place where Sammy Snake lived.

And they talked and talked.

"Yes, I'll do it," said Sammy. "But it's a ticklish business."
